People Receive Offers.

Will Lose the Big Ditch.

THINK HE IS A SWINDLER. Man Gets a Check Cashed in You

kers and Is Arrested. YONKERS, N. Y., July 26.-Frank Harris, who was arrested last night upon suspicion of passing forged checks, was this morning remanded for further hearing by City Judge Donoghue. Harris came to this city yesterday and went to the Getty House, where he asked lerk Sanford if he would cash a check

SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.

the Cane, McCaffrey Case.

The differences between Cane, Mc-their employees were brought to an end to-day by the decision of State Arbitration Commissioner Edward Feeney.

In his decision Commissioner Feeney

"First-That the workmen of Cane.

McCaffrey & Co., inspired by the hope

MANHATTAN FIELD LEASE.

sion to Sell the Option.

Counsel for Receiver Andrew Freed-to-day applied to Justice Stover, in the holds for a five years' renewal of the

to him.

Justice Stover declined to consider a this time what should be done with the Carnegie Trainmen Hurt.

and trimmers."

English capitalists.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

Residences and Stores Entered has

Only One Arrest Made.

rested this morning by Detective Dele hanty, of the De Kaib avenue station on a charge of breaking into the apart ments of Mrs. Hannah Pearsall, 220

Morris Smith, of Coney Island, reported his morning that thieves had visited a $18 worth of paint.

Mrs. Katherine Hoerter, of 189 Washington street, Brooklyn, to-day reported that some this? ton street, Brooklyn, to-day report that some thief had entered th ement of her home and stolen $46.

been stabbed in the left side up the dim."

Officer Munday arrested the man, who be used to be used to leged Counterfelters.

SHEEP CHASE IN HOBOKEN.

Drove Escaped and the Small Box

Was Happy.

A drove of sheep escaped from Payne's last evening, and for a time created intense excitement. After rushing through the streets followed by several butchers and a large crowd, the sheep entered Jersey City. It was a picnic for the disengaged small boy with a dog. He joined in the hunt with a vim.

The sheep became panic stricken and dashed into open doors and up stairways.
Several were cornered in Lillie's saloon, at Sixteenth and Henderson streets, and some made for the coal docks, where they stood their ground until too tightly pressed, when they leaped into the river and were drowned. With the exception of those drowned nearly all were recovse drowned nearly all

WILL WED NEWARK'S MAYOR.

Julius A. Lebkuecher.

in a few days become the wife of Mayor

Mrs. Burger is a well-known and pop ular member of the leading German social circles of the city. The marriage ceremony will be performed at the home of Herman Hagedorn, 204 Jefferson ave-

The exact date of the wedding has no been made public. The wedding will be

CORBIN'S ROAD CENSURED.

But for Its Negligence Jesse Spang

er Would Be Alive.

A Coroner's jury in the case of Jesse been made public. T a very quiet affair.

ulius A. Lebkuecher, of Newark.

James McGowan, eighteen years old, of 213 Navy street, Brooklyn, was ar-

Ann Connery, a Servant, Admits She Threw It There.

Is the Mother and Says the Child Was Stillborn.

A case that may prove one of infanticide was reported to Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, this morning. Ann Connery, an unmarried woman, who is twenty-eight years old, and the mother of the child, is now in the Seney Hospital, a prisoner, pending the result of the Coroner's inquiry.

She was employed as a domestic in the household of Daniel O. Ketchum, 448 Sixth street. On Monday evening the girl was taken ill. The following day Mrs. Ketchum noticed that the pipes leading from a toilet room were stopped up.

A pumber was called in yesterday. He located the cause of the stoppage in the sewer pipe.

Shortly after going to work this morning he found the body of a male child in Morris Smith, of Coney Island, reported.

sewer pipe.

Shortly after going to work this morning he found the body of a male child in the sewer pipe.

ing he found the body of a male child in the sower pipe.

The police questioned the girl. After some hesitation she admitted that the child was hers. She said the little one was born on Monday night. She kept the fact a secret from her mistress, and when she got the opportunity she stepped into the closet and threw the body into the basin. She declared that the infant was still-born. She added that the father of the child was George Lacey, whom she had left in Ireland when she came to America three months ago.

she had left in freiand when she came to America three months ago. The body of the child will be sent to the Morgue, where an autopsy will be held to determine whether the child was alive when it was thrown away.

BLUMENTHAL WAS MERCIFUL Pulled His Whiskers. man, and had one leg of his trousers ripped nearly its whole length by a cut that was intended to give him a qui-

Three young men knelt side by side on the floor of the Clymer Street Police Station, Williamsburg, last night and begged for mercy. They so affected the complainant in the case, Alexander Blumenthal, that he declined to make any charge, and the young men were save thim."

that was intended to give that released. Warner Post, of 532 South Fourth street; John Mendler, of of 215 Stagg street, and William Fielding, of 195 Division avenue, all well-known young men in Williamsburg, were standing on Broadway, near the ferry, at 8 o'clock last night, when Blumentha I came along stages.

last night, when blanch and along.

The trio all pulled the man's long and flowing whiskers until he howled for mercy. An officer came along and arrested them, and had it not been for Blumenthal they would probably have been severely punished.

SERVANT SUES WOOLSEY.

Mrs. Dempsey Says the Millionsire Owes Her Wages.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 28. Millionaire Edward J. Woolsey, of As-teria, was a defendant before Justice Ingram in the police court to-day in a suit brought by Mrs. Rosina Dempsey, of 39 Hopkins avenue, who claimed $98.33 due her for wages.

Mrs. Dempsey said she had been hired by Woolsey on Jan. 24 last, but no agreement had been made as to the amount of wages she was to be paid. On May 21, when she saked him for her pay, he handed her $5, and this was all he gave her. She then left his employ, and afterwards when she called at his New York house, 8 Lexington averue, and acked for her pay, he said he had given her all that was due her.

Lawyer Walter C. Foster, who appeared for Woolsey, asked for an adjournment of the case for two weeks. Judge Ingram granted the adjournment.

CLUBBED HIS SON.

But the Younger Lawless Was Benting His Sister.

Patrick Lawless, a middle-aged man, was held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, on a charge of assaulting is son Joseph, who is now in the Cumberland Street Hospital, Brooklyn. at 31 Sanford street, had great provocation for what he did. Young Lawless said to be a desperate character, and stab the old man.

Lawless picked up a club and struck his son in self-defense. He struck so hard, however, that it is believed the younger man's skull was fractured.
Lawless went to the Vernon avenue station after the assault and surrendered himself.

ROBBED HIS FATHER.

New York Boy Arrested in Brook lyn with Stolen Jewelry.

Alfred Solomon, nineteen years old, wa traigned in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning, on the charge of robbing his father, Nathan Solomon, of 267 East One Hundred and Solomon, of 267 East One Hundred and Second street, New York, of $290 worth of jewelry on July 20 last.

Detectives McCormick and Denedy, of the Fifth avenue station, found young Solomon in Flith avenue, Brooklyn, last night. He was turned over to Detective Meehan, of the Central Office, New York, by Judge Tighe this morning.

The detectives found some of the stolen jewelry in the boy's possession.

BURGLAR AT SEVENTEEN.

Mrs. Lynch Found David Stras berger in Her Cellar.

Broke Into Gresham's Laboratory

Jerry Connor, a well-known character about outh Brooklyn, was held for examination by Justice Tighe in the Butler Street Police Cour

Brooklyn, this morning on the charge of breaking

Fell Down the Elevator Shaft.

Max Russalt, thirty-four years old, of 200 Sourum street, Brooklyn, while at work on the econd floor of 15 White street this morning, fell

Spanger, aged ten, who crawled under the gates of the Long Island Railroad on Atlantic avenue on July 10, and was instantly killed by a train, returned a Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue instantly killed by a train, returned a verdict this morning exonerating the engineer and censuring the Company for not properly securing the gate, for falling to employ a man to warn pedestrians of their danger, and for running trains so rapidly through the city. Court, Williamsburg, to-day held David Strasberger, seventeen years old, on a charge of burglary, Mrs. Kate Lynch of 193 Marcy avenue, found the young man in her cellar last night, wrenching lock from a door. Strasberger's parents reside at 354 tythe avenue, but the police say that spends most of his time in lodging for not properly securing the gate, for falling to employ a man to warn pedestrians of their danger, and for running trains so rapidly through the city.

Two Charges of Assault.

John McKen, twenty-years eld, of 14 Fifty-seventh street, Brooklyn, was arraigned in the Butler Street Police Court this morning and held for examination on July 21 on two charges of assault, preferred by James O'Conneil, a mineral water manufacturer of 134 Boerum place, and one of his drivers. Feter Faulkner. O'Conneil was held yesterday in the same court for examination on the same date on the charge of drainanton on the Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, was notified this porning of the death of Margaretta G. Anderson.

BABE'S BODY IN A SEWER PIPE. BUSY BROOKLYN BURGLARS. NO EVIDENCE OF FRAUD SHOW!

The Injunction Against the Clerks to Committees Dissolved.

Though Justice Bartlett Admits Navy street, Feb. 12 last, and stealing jewelry valued at $200.

The police have been looking for him since the burglary. Detective Delehanty met him on Classon avenue, and took him into custody. The prisoner denies his golit. There Was Politics in It.

associate clerks to Committees of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen, seem to investing in the canal project. be nearer than ever to-day to the goal when their efforts to get their salaries Congress did something with the Canal will be rewarded.

Ever since they displaced a corps of zation Committee might be forced to Ever since they displaced a corps of Democratic clerks, by resolution of Aldermen in January last, a vast number of injunctions, mandamus orders to show cause, and other legal obstructions have been put in their way.

A decision by Justice Bartlett, of the the money had to be obtained somewhere.

A decision by Justice Bartlett, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning clears up the whole question.

Justice Bartlett decides that the resolution of the Board of Aldermen appointing the clerks was legal.

He decides, too, that fraud or a desire to waste the city's funds is not shown. The General Term and Court of Appeals seem to be the only obstacles in the way of the clerks now.

The decision of Justice Bartlett in part is:

"I am unable to discover from the affidavits presented as a matter of fact that the Common Council acted fraudlently in passing these resolutions.

"The proof does show that the majority acted as political partisans, but their desire seems to have been to effect their party purposes by methols which

STABBED WITH SCISSORS.

Policeman Munday Had a Lively
Time with James Stanton.

James Stanton, who lives in South
Brooklyn, was taken to the Tombs today, heavily handcuffed, by Policeman Munday, who made a charge of assault against him. The policeman had been stabbed in the left side up the

A FIVE-CENT THIEF.

Smith Claimed that Aschner Cheated Him on a Pipe.

For stealing a paper of tobacco valued at five cents John Smith, firty-three years old, of 73 Atlantic avenue,, Brooklyn, was carried through the streets in a patrol wagon, locked over night in a gloomy cell in the Adams street police station and landed before the bar in Justice Walsh's court this morning.

The complainant in the case was Frederick Aschner, a tobacconist, of 234 Fulton street. He said that Smith entered his store at 6 o'clock last night and asked for a paper of tobacco. On getting it, he put it into his pocket, and throwing a pipe on the counter said:

"That's all you get. You 'skinned' me on that pipe yesterday, Good-night."

Smith started out of the store. Aschner followed him and caused his arrest. In court to-day Justice Walsh told the prisoner to pay Aschner the five cents due him, and he would be discharged. The prisoner said he had no money, and he was paroled until to-morrow morning. gloomy cell in the Adams street police

STILETTO AND BAD MONEY. HELD UP BY BOYS.

Young Arthur Farrar Robbed as He

Came Out from Bathing. John Hoey, a dirty-faced boy about eleven years old, who lives at 215 Free man street, was held in the Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, to-day, on a charge of highway robbary this morning, charged with passing coun-terfeit money. Vincenzo and Yorol at-tempted to pas a spurious silver dollar on saloon-keeper Henry Schneider, of Railroad and Weldon avenue last night, and he had them arrested.

John Sands, of Weldon street, says that Yorol threatened his life with a stilletto when he objected to a coin offeredd, and when the prisoners were arrested a stilletto made of an old file ground smooth and to a point, was found in Yorol's possession. A number of counterfeit silver dollarsm were also of highway robbery.

Arthur Farrar, thirteen years old, of 121 Kent street, went in bathing at the foot of Noble street yesterday afternoon. He says that when he came out he was held up by Hoey and three other companions, who robbed him of 10 cents, all the money he had. Farrar does not know who his other assailants were noney he had. Farrar does who his other assailants were. In Yorol's possession. A number of counterfeit silver dollarsm were also found on the prisoners. Both prisoners were remanded for trial in default of buil.

SHERIFF DUFFY REPLIES.

Village Authorities Should Suppress Monte Carlo.

McCaffrey & Co., inspired by the hope of all their fellow-citizens, in February last, that the normal conditions of trade would be resumed before this time, consented to a reduction of 10 per cent. In their wages until the expected resumption should occur.

"Second—That when Cane, McCaffrey & Co. agreed to a restoration of wages upon the resumption of the normal condition, they apprehended that to mean a revival of general business that brought with it a measure of prosperity.

"I am of the opinion that the normal conditions of trade have not been restored, and, therefore, decide that the men re-employed by Cane, McCaffrey & Co. on July 23, and others similarly employed, shall remain at work at the 10 per cent, reduction in their wages.

"In view of the fact that the so-called WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 28 .-Sheriff John Duffy was very much surprised yesterday when he learned that A drove of sheep escaped from Payne's charges were preferred against him to abattoir on Henderson street, Hoboken. Gov. Flower for not having closed up Gov. Flower for not having closed up the gambling and pool rooms at West-chester, known as Little Monte Carlo. Sheriff Duffy says that it is the place of the village authorities of the village authorities of the village authorities of the place. If they cannot do so they must make an application to the Sheriff for assistance. Sheriff Duffy says it is not his place to run about the county on hearsay evidence. He says he has never been asked to suppress the pool-room, and when he is asked as the law prescribes, he will do all in his power to suppress the same.

Mrs. Burger Soon to Become Mrs. GIRL ACCUSES HER UNCLE. Mrs. Louise Burger, of Brooklyn, wil lochstadter Held on the Charge of Ill-Treating Her.

William Dockstadter, thirty-five years old, of 1751 First avenue, was arraigned before Justice Burke in Harlem Court this morning on a charge of assaulting his niece, Mary Lutz, sixteen years old, whose parents reside at 7 Boerum whose parents reside at 7 Boerum street, Brooklyn.

Mary went to live in Dockstadter's house in February last and she alleges that she was ill-treated a few days later. The prisoner was held.

SPEAKING OF DRY GOODS.

Have You Heard of the Prices Of fered by Ludwig Bros.? The great midsummer reduction sale

As to the sale he reserved decision, in the stores of Ludwig Bros., which extend from No. 34 to No. 44 West Fourteenth street, is attracting thousands of (By Ameriated Press.)
PITTSHURG. July 26.—By the spreading of people these days, who have learned of the bargains such as no other season has known. There are alterations going the rails in the yard of the Edgar Thomson Steel Works Company, at Braddock, last night n engine and eight care belonging to the Car-egie Company were hadly wreshed and threa ainmon were seriously injured. One of the on, Fire ian Charles McCanley, was hurt in-rially and will die.

Lynching by a Kentucky Mob. (B) Associated Press.) CARLISLE, Ky., July 26 - Atter midnight last the cross-arm of " (elegraph poin Tyler had been put in lail to answer a charge of criminal assault upon a thirteen year-old girl, whom he had cheked and beaten.

To Be Tried for Burgiary. Cornelius Collins, twenty-one years old, of 49 Market Police Court to-day, Saloon-Keeper Ed ward Margolia of 112 Division street, was the complainant against him. He accused thm of breaking tato his liquor store a week ago and atealing therefrom $100 worth of cigars and Steamer Sighted Icebergs. The German steamer Diamant, which arrived o-day from Hamburg, reports sighting four Nicaragua Canal Reorganization Six of the Colorado Tar-and-Feath- Madge and May Will Tramp to San Francisco. BURGLAR SHOT IN MONTCLAIR. ers Gang Arrested.

Unless Congress Acts Speedily We Denver Detectives Threatened at They Are Typewriters and Would Policeman Wounds a Fleeing Colorado Springs.

(By Associated Press) DENVER, July 26.—Six men have been There is a probability that the Nicara gua Canal may pass into the hands of arrested for complicity in the tarring and feathering of Adjt.-Gen. Tarsney Julge Henry E. Howland, of 25 Wall street, a member of the Nicaragua Canal three in this city and three at Colorade Reorganization Committee, admitted to Springs-and more arrests are to follow. an "Evening World" reporter to-day that The prisoners here are John A. Reagan, who was turnkey at the jail at Smith M. Weed and John R. Bartlett had gone to England on the invitation of Colorado Springs on the night the out He expressed the fear that unless bill within a short time, the Reorgani eathers to his person. The three men arrested at Colorado

The either is his person.

The three men arrested at Colorado

Nay lives in East New York and Just on the continue owner and a look, who was a deputy sheriff Jurius, are a flatfactal backet and mammas the convincing that they will be continued to the party of masked men with Gr. Tarney to Austin Hoff Corn. Tarney Hoff with Hoff Corn. Ta

Clerk Sanford if he would cash a check. The check was on the Union Dime Savings Bank, Broadway and Thirty-third atreet, New York. Sanford told Harris to get some one to identify him, and Harris then visited the shoe store of H. Guinsburg and purchased a pair of shoes, tendering the check in payment. It was cashed by Mr. Guinsburg who gave Harris 37 in change.

Harris then went into Goodale's shoe store and wanted to get another check cashed. Mr. Goodale became suspicious and called Detective McGowan's attention to the man. McGowan watched him and placed him under arrest as a suspicious person. When he reached the station he to'e up two other checks. Ali nim and placed him there are suspicious person. When he reached the station he to a up two other checks. All of them were signed by the same handwriting but with different names.

The police think that they have a clever swindler. Detective McGowan went to New York this morning to ascertain from the Dime Savings Bank whether the check is good or not. Harris claims to hall from Boston.

Caffrey & Co., clothlers, of this city, and ployed, shall remain at work at the 10 per cent, reduction in their wages. "In view of the fact that the so-called minimum rate of $50 and $24 per week for cloth, shear and knife cutters, respectively, is being paid by many of the competing clothing manufacturers of New York City, I further decide that the said minimum rate of wages shall be restored to their employees by Cane. McCaffrey & Co. on and after Oct. I, 1894. The 10 per cent, restoration at that date shall similarly apply to examiners and trimmers." Speeches were made by ex-Senator Bixby, ex-Assistant District-Attorney James M. Brady, Major M. C. Dougherty, Col. Fest, Andrew Beeser and John J. Murphy. The last three speakers were formerly members of the Tammany Hall General Committee.

A committee was appointed to select permanent headquarters, which will be pon every evening for enrolmen purposes.

WILLIAM WACHTER MISSING.

Was Despondent, Had Shot Himself and Eluded His Watchers.

The police are looking for William Wachter, a painter, forty years old, of 521 East One Hundred and Fifty-fourth street, who disappeared from his home hast Tuesday night and is supposed to have committed suicide.

Wachter worked for the Second avenue L rond.

He became ill about four months ago, and had not been able to work since. He was despondent and melancholy, and two weeks ago his seven-year-old boy was taken ill with diphtheria.

Last Tuesday morning, while his wife was attending to the sick boy. Wachter, who was in the parlor, shot himself in the head and left shoulder. Both bullets made only flesh wounds.

After this a guard was placed on him, but in the evening he eluded his watchers and escaped from the house. Since then he has not been heard of.

A general alarm was sent out from Scilce Headquarters this morning. an, of the Manhattan Athletic Club. street, who disappeared from his home Supreme Court Chambers, for permis-sion to sell the option which the club holds for a five years' renewal of the lease of Manhattan Field from December next, at an annual rental of $12,500. The receiver states that he believes it will be to the best interests of all concerned that the option be sold and the proceeds devoted to the payment of claims against the club. A creditor of the club, through counsel, stated to the Court that he had a judgment against the club for $1.500, which he had secured before a receiver had been appointed for the club. He asked that if the option upon the lease of the grounds was sold that the Court order that the proceeds be ordered paid to him.

HAD A BOGUS FIT IN COURT.

the Court Officers.

Policeman Kopfrian, of the West Thirtieth street station, arrested Emmia One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, After being locked up until this morning she was taken to Jefferson Market Court, where Justice Hogan held her in default of bail for ten days. She re-ceived the sentence quietly, went out into the corridor, which leads to the [ail, and there fell into what seemed to iall, and there fell into what seemed to be an epileptic fit.

The policemen tried to revive her, but were finally compelled to send for a St. Vincent's Hospital Ambulance. The surgeon jabbed needles into her and brought her to-ostensibly-and then he told the court policemen that she had been shamming. She was taken into the prison, where the matron took care of her.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

MAY GET ENGLISH CAPITAL. GEN. TARSNEY'S ASSAILANTS. IF MAMMA SAYS YES. NEW JERSEY.

But Mrs. Malton Says "Pshaw, Thief Tried to Slash the Officer with a Razor.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., July 26.-Police two little typewriter girls.

They are cousins and bosom friends. saw two suspicious looking men carry Each one is fifteen years old, and each ing a large bag on Bloomfield avenue rare was committed; his brother Michael one contributes to the support of a wid- and demanded that they give an account

Madge lives at 131 Henry street, and is The men, instead or answering, rar County, and "Shorty" Alien, alias Madge lives at 131 Henry street, and is The men, instead or answering, ran thomas Gordon, who was one of Sheriff employed in a lawyer's office at 115 Nas-away, and were pursued by the officer, Bowers's army of deputies in the Bull sau street, in the room adjoining Law-who caught one fugitive at Park and Allen is said to be the man who poked writer girl attracted the attention of the bag and made a slash at the office he gun in Gen. Tarsney's face at the the whole community not long ago by with a razor, Levery struck at the fel Alamo Hotel and applied the tar and being shot to death in a very suspicious low with his club, and, as his assailant turned and fled again, fired three May lives in East New York and just snots at him with his pistol.

springs are J. J. Mulins, son of a now is out of employment.

One bullet struck the runaway in the wealthy Boston mine owner and a These girls have decided to walk to leg, above the knee, shattering the bone

Like a Backer.

will He Succeed SMITH?

James W. Auten, a Supposed Candidate, Calls on Gilroy.

Mayor Gilroy's first callers this morning were John Sabins Smith and James W. Auten, Mr. Auten was the anti-Platt candidate for Police Cott his size.

W. Auten, Mr. Auten was the anti-Plat candidate for Police Cott his size.

W. Auten, Mr. Auten was the anti-Plat candidate for Police Cott his size.

W. Auten, Mr. Auten was the sand and sames W. House of the State of Cott his size.

W. Auten, Mr. Auten was the sand and the supplicity announced that they were a stay of the size of the si

A glimpse long enough for a sketch was had of Miss Madge at her office. She is a pretty, dark complexioned, stout and muscular girl, and is thorsughly in earnest.

"We are going," she said decidedly, "If we can get a backer. Then, after a second's reflection, she added, with not quite so much decision, "and mamma's consent.

It is any odds that is asked that the girls, if they keep their word as to conditions will never get further from mamma than a distance coverable by the time between meals. having a quarrel with his wife and a man named Obernauer, whom he accused of being unduly intimate. It is supposed that after he left home he went to the mountain road and hanged himself.

HIS WIFE SAYS HE BEAT HER.

Ex-Policeman Conklin Denies the Charge in Court.

Thomas Conklin, aged thirty-one, formerly a member of the Fire and Police Departments, was charged with being a wife-beater in Yorkville Police Court to-day. He is a truckman now, and resides at 536 West Forty-fifth street. Five years ago he was dismissed from the Fire Department, and then, through his political pull, it is said, became a member of the "Finest." He remained a policeman two or three years, but was dismissed from the force while attached to the Charles street tation. His wife, Rachel, with her face and His wife, Rachel, with her face and eyes cut and bruised, appeared as complainant. She says he assaulted her in a bruial manner last night. Her cries brought Policeman Wagner, of the West Forty-seventh street station, to the scene, and he arrested Conklin.

Conklin denied the charge of assault, and drawing a whiskey flask from his pocket said: 'This is the cause of all the trouble, Judge. She drinks.' He called upon his eighty-gar-old daughter to corroborate him, but she denied that her mother drank. Conklin will have a hearing to-morrow.

Bellet that This Unknown Man Committed Suicide.

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 28.—A man dropped deal this morning on the Boule-vard, near Sherman avenue. A bottle of carbolic acid was found in his pocket, and the odor of the poison was noticeable about his mouth. It is supposed that he took poison with suicidal intent. His name could not be ascertained.

Think They Are Nicol Victims.

Mrs. Wood It Londown, of $6 West Eighty-ixth atrest, has begun two suits in the Court of

M. Rogers one of the first men in this country to make a business of cutting i.e. died at New London, Conn. this morning, aged seventy file. nd, last Monday night Kate tashin, fifeen years old, while washing links at her home on thirr-hill street, Salen, lass, was instantly killed by lightning yes-

No Pardon for Murderer Warner. TRENTON, N. J., July 16.—The Court of Pardons, in semion at Sea Girt resterday, re-fused to interfere in the case of Wesley Warner, sentenced to be hanged at Mount Holly Sept 6 for the murder of Linzie Peak. George Daddow, twenty years old, was killed at the William Penn Colliery, Shenandosh, Pa., esterday by being caught between a mine car and the roof. Collector Mack Accused.

John Mack, of 214 Ninth street, Jersey City, was arrested this morning upon a charge of ap-propriating $23, which he had collected for L.

Died in an Ambulance.

Harry Shippen, forty-seven years old, or 18;

Ludwig disappeared Sunday night after

ACCUSED HER OF ASSAULT.

Mrs. Monahan in a Critical Condition and Another Woman Held.

morning and held for trial in Jersey

City by Justice Potts. The complainant

was Mrs. Rose Monahan. Both women live at 15 Brunswick street. Mrs. Mon-ahan yesterday accused Camelia of stealing soap, and Camelia became en-raged, it is said, and struck and tried to choke Rose. As Mrs. Monahan was in a delicate condition the shock has proe-trated her and she is now in a critical endition.

Camelia Delici was arrested this

BUYS BUYS Wonderful Values in FOR CLOTHING MEN'S SUITS. All Wood Thoroughly Well ade, Durable and ready to BUYS FOR $4.98 Man in the Leg. BUYS FALL OVERCOATS FOR $6.48 All other goods proportionate prices, Clothing bought of us Kept in Repair Free of Charge, Open Saturday evention into FOR BUYS 10 o clock, P OGRESS CLOTHING CO BUYS 67 Cortlandt St. 67 FOR Miscellaneous.

HARLEM RIVER PARK.

escape.

Policeman Baylis went to the station-house and told what had happened.

Word was telephoned to Newark, and policemen were notified to watch the Bloomfield line.

Bloomfield line.

At 2 o'clock Policeman Johnson and some other policemen saw some men walking down the road with a bag on one of the men's back. The men were arrested. In the bag were seventeen, boxes of cigars, which, the men said, they were going to deliver in Newark.

The men were arraigned before Justice Mott and refused to say anything or tell their names.

They were committed to jail toawait a hearing.

THIS ALARM WORKED.

And as a Result Newark Police Got Four Alleged Burglars.

NEWARK, N. J., July 26 .- The police think they have captured the burgiars nealth authorities to-day. There are a who have been robbing houses in the number of suspects, however, and it is city for the past two weeks.

Early this morning a burglar alarm attached to the house of Moses Strauss, at 1015 Broad street, was rung. The reserves were turned out, but no one was found in Strauss's house, although a candle and revolver were found in the

FOUND HANGING TO A TREE.

Ludwig Had Quarrelled with His Wife and Obernauer.

PATERSON, N. J., July 25.—The body of Herman Ludwig, forty-five years old, was found hanging to a tree on the High Mountain road this morning.

Catharine Geltser Was Murdered ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 28.-A Corons Mrs. Catharine Geltzer, an aged resident of that for Catharine ceitzer, an ages resident of the who disappeared last September, and whose smalls were found on Monday in a swamp here miles from her hime, came to her death at the hands of persons unknown. Suspicion who was a man seen in the neighborhood of where the body was found, and his arrest may follow.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Collins Held to Await the Appearance of Property-Owners. George Collins, a well-dressed man fifty years old, who said he lived at Sixteenth street and Third avenue, was remanded in Harlem Police Court this morning for examination, charged with attempted burgiary.

HAD A BOTTLE OF POISON.

Belief that This Unknown Man Committed Suicide.

ELIZABETH, N. J. July 28.—A man dropped dead this morning on the Boulevard, near Sherman avenue. A bottle of carbolic acid was found in his pocket, and the odor of the poison was noticeable about his mouth. It is supposed that he took poison with suicidal intent. His name could not be ascertained.

Think They Are Nicol Victims.

LONG BEANCH, N. J. July 28.—The important of the work of the work of the work of the poison of the bodies which were warhed ashore at Long Branch a few days ago are still in Morries.

Brown About Town.

Broaded Victims.

LONG BEANCH, N. J. July 28.—The important of the two houses and notify them to appear in court as soon as possible.

Round About Town.

Frederick Nelson, for three years old, we worked the intrinse of the two houses and notify them to appear in court as soon as possible.

Frederick Nelson, for three years old, who claimed to have no home, was found sick and destitute in front of 41? East Thirty-third street this morning. He was sent to Bellevus Hospital.

taken home.

William Bateman, nineteen years old, of $15.6 West Sixty-ninth etreet; Emma Lewis, eisteen years old, and John Baker, seventeen years old, of 215 West Sixty-ninth etreet, all colored, arceited early this morning in Riverside Park fulcitering, were fined 100 each by Justice Meade in the Yorkville Police Court to-day, Baker in the Yorkville Police Court to-day, Baker in

For sallow skin and all other conditions resulting from constipation, go by the book on Beecham's pills.

Book free, pills 25c. At drug stores; or write to B F Alles Co, 365 Canal St. New York into the laboratory of James Gresham on Sixth Mirest, near Third avenue. Brooklyn, on the night of July 11. Detective Benedy, who arrested Con-hor at Smith and Ninth streets last night, says that Connor admitted the charge.